

KENTUCKY'S BRIDGE HORROR.

Twenty-Nine Men Dead, Two Dying and 19 Others Hurt.

The Disaster Attributed to Carelessness of Contractors.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
CINCINNATI, O., June 16.—The bodies of all but seven of the victims of the bridge disaster at Covington, Ky., have been taken out of the river, and the bodies of the twenty-two corpses now at the morgue have been identified. The bodies of the missing seven are supposed to be buried under the iron work of the bridge at the bottom of the river. These are the names of the missing:

Martin Luther, La Grange, Ky.
Frank Mure, Newport, head carpenter.
George Edgar, Lexington, Ky.
W. H. Burton, Winchester, Ky.
William Weir, Lexington, Ky.
Fred Hume, Lexington, Ky.
Rick Adams, Cincinnati.

Twenty-nine men were seriously injured, and of these thirty-one, an Englishman and John Phillips, of Newport, Ky., are likely to die before night. Following is a corrected list of the dead:

C. D. Chapman, Temple, of Boston.
Thomas Dunn, Wheeling, W. Va.
An unknown, about forty years old.
J. R. Roper, Radford, Va.
William Hays, Lexington, Ky.
Kimer Harker, Cincinnati.
William Allen, Lexington, Ky.
C. W. Pfaffenbach, of Wheeling, W. Va.
Dick Gorman, Lexington, Ky.
John Adams, 6 Walnut street, Cincinnati.
Frank Adams, 6 Walnut street, Cincinnati.
Robert Baird, of Iowa, Columbia street, Newport, Ky.
Andrew Baird, of Pittsburg, brother of Robert.
Charles Graham, Lexington, Ky.
Edward Sullivan, Lexington, Ky.
James Johnson, of Harrisburg, Md.
Dennis Hixon, Parkersburg, W. Va.
E. A. Nolan, Erie, Pa.
Charles Hall, Lexington, Ky.
Charles F. Fitch, Ind.
William Horton, Princeton, Ky.
Patrick Murray, Green River, W. Va.

The injured men and all agree that the disaster is attributable to the desire of the contractors to hurry the bridge to completion. The piling upon which the platform of false work was erected had not been driven deep enough into the muddy bottom of the river to render them secure, and when the attempt was made to put in place the heavy iron beams which were to span the river the extra weight caused the false work to go to pieces.

One of the injured men asserts that the likelihood of some such disaster happening had been pointed out to the contractors, and that the latter simply laughed at the fears expressed by the men. Both of the contractors have suffered death for their carelessness.

CAPT. BAKKER'S TERM REDUCED.

The Obedient Commander Gully Not of Homelike, but of Cruelty.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
THE HAGUE, June 16.—The appeal of Capt. Bakker, commander of the Netherlands-American liner steamer Obedient, who in March last was sentenced to a year's imprisonment for shooting and killing a mutinous stoker on board his vessel, has resulted in a victory for him.

The Public Prosecutor contended that the sentence imposed by the lower court was insufficient, and demanded that the court of appeal increase the term of imprisonment to at least four years.

In the decision handed down today the court acquits Capt. Bakker of the charge of homicide on which he was convicted, and finds him guilty only of cruelty. The sentence of one year's imprisonment is reduced to a term of three months in jail.

A BIG FIRE IN ELIZABETH.

Destruction of One of Its Important Business Blocks.

One of the Most Serious Conflagrations in the Town's History.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
ELIZABETH, N. J., June 16.—The most destructive fire in the history of Elizabeth, so far as its business portion is concerned, broke out here today at 7 a. m. The entire block on First street, between Third and Broadway, with the exception of the Citizens' Elizabeth Bank, company's building, was wiped out and the loss will run up over $600,000.

The buildings destroyed are James Mitchell's extensive hardware, ironmongery and mail Mitchell's, Mrs. Susan L. Clark's, Rudolph von Stark's and a building belonging to the Adam Metzger estate. A dozen families have been rendered homeless and have lost all their effects.

The fire was discovered in the top part of the central main gas-vent and Mitchell's, and evidently had its origin from a defective flue.

The entire fire department of Elizabeth was at the scene.
The central building was three stories high and was inhabited by the families of James Gallagher, Robert Conroy, Edward Phillips and a newly married couple whose name could not be ascertained. On the ground floor were the laundry of Sam Lee and the picture store of A. Samberg. The tenants barely escaped with their lives, some of them having been tied at the time.

Mrs. Gallagher's three children were down with scarlet fever and were carried out by the firemen and taken to the Rescue Mission on the next block.

Mitchell's warehouse offered an easy prey to the flames. This building was four stories high. It was formerly National Bank, the chief meeting place of Elizabeth, and the building was on the second floor. On the third floor was a splendid large room used by the local lodge of Freemasons, harmony lodge, Knights of Pythias, the Ancient Order of Foresters and other organizations. They lost all their paraphernalia.

The flames which jumped to the two-story building of Mrs. Clark adjoining. Joseph Fishbough occupied the first floor for a restaurant and Dr. Warren C. Westlake, dentist, the second floor.

Next the house of Rudolph von Stark on Third street was set on fire, and the fire spread to the stable adjoining. Mrs. James Kelly lived upstairs and lost all her effects, together with $200 which she had in a safe in the bureau.

The four-story Metzger building was badly gutted. John Metzger, Philip Ernest and another family occupied the upper floors, while Joseph David, wholesale and retail liquor dealer, occupied the first floor. The roof of the Elizabeth Bank building, company caught fire, a fire which broke out from the flames.

The individual losses estimated by the fire insurance companies are as follows:
James Mitchell, building, $16,000; stock, $17,000; insured for $14,000. Rudolph von Stark, $3,000; insured. Joseph Fishbough, $3,000; insured. Dr. Warren C. Westlake, $3,000; insured. Michael Carroll, $1,500; insured. Robert Conroy, $1,500; insured. Edward Phillips, $1,500; insured. A. Samberg, $1,000; insured. James Gallagher, $500; no insurance. John Metzger, $500; partly insured. Philip Ernest, $500; no insurance. James Kelly, $500; no insurance. Joseph David, $1,500; insured. Daniel Martin, $2,000; partly insured. Two families, names unknown, $1,000. Richard Frohman, $500. Charles F. Fitch, $300. A conservative estimate puts the total loss by the fire at not less than $500,000.

CRACKSMEN AT SEA CLIFF.

They Rob the Post-Office of $1,200 in Stamps and Cash.

And Secured a Like Amount from the Village Safe.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
SEA CLIFF, L. I., June 16.—This morning it was discovered that the Post-Office here had been broken into by burglars. It and the village clerk's office are connected, and Samuel Hixon is postmaster and clerk of the village. There are two safes in the office, one the Post-office safe, the other the village safe. Last night there was $300 in stamps and $500 in money in the Post-office safe. The postmaster says he is not sure that it was not more than the Post-office safe.

The burglars gained admittance to the post-office, it is supposed, through the window. They then broke open both safes. They apparently worked in a cool and business-like way and must have been professionals. They made a clean haul of everything.

Alvin Clark Hixon will not be able to tell how much was stolen from the safe until he has made an examination of his accounts. These he is to do today.

The post-office was a scene of confusion this morning. The walls were blackened with powder, and bits of plaster were knocked out by the explosion. Torn letters were scattered about the floor, and loose postage stamps were to be seen in all directions. There is great excitement in the village over the robbery.

SAVED BY A BRICK SHAFT.
Twelve Families Driven Out of a Flat by Fire in the Elevator.

Twelve families living in the five-story flat at 222 West Fifteenth street, were aroused by fire a few minutes before 5 o'clock this morning. One of the tenants, who was just getting up, saw smoke pouring through the dumb-waiter shaft, and gave the alarm.

There was a good deal of excitement for a few moments, but every one got out safely. With the exception of the families on the top floor all hands came down the stairs. Tenants of the top story climbed over the roof to the next house.

When the firemen came a second alarm was dispatched as a precautionary measure. The fire started from some unknown cause at the bottom of the dumb-waiter shaft in the basement, and shot through to the roof. The shaft is of brick, while the doors opening into it at each story are covered with sheet iron. This kept the fire from spreading, and the flames were confined to the shaft, and it didn't take long to put them out. About $500 damage was done.
